Councilman Sigda announced a great big thank you to our Streets Department for the weekend work due to a manhole problem over January 30 & 31.

ENGINEERS REPORT:

Lisa Catania's report

RIGHT TO KNOW SUBMISSIONS:

Two RTK's have 30 day extension

DISCUSSION:

Industrial LLC extension granted until 3/11/2021.

Eddystone Borough negotiations team to be filled for upcoming meetings for our EMT Union talks.

The parade trailer was discussed as it needs to be moved so work can continue in the old firehouse garage for the police department accreditation. The trailer will need to be relocated as soon as we locate a covered area. If Rec Board advises they do not wish to continue using it then the trailer will be placed on Municibid.

Liquid Fuels Fund requires an accounting adjustment to write off the $51,381.84 in the Due to/from the General Fund on both funds. LFF will not be able to repay this money. This relates to the 2014 audit. The state auditor disallowed these expenses due to lack of documentation. The adjustment will be made as of 12/31/20
