DISCUSSION:

Lisa Catania updated all on Aero and also reminded all if there are any complaints to go to Eddystone Borough website and there is a link for the DEP and anyone with a complaint can submit it under "air quality" in regards to dust or noise.

VP Hall asked if there was any recourse for the County's mistake with incorrectly charging for 5 units as to 1 unit to the resident receiving the $9,732.50 refund.

PUBLIC COMMENT:

Karen Reeves thanked Councilman Bolton, tax collector Dan Corcoran and Eddystone Borough Council for the tax ordinance which helped her save money along with other residents.

Jesse Coulter questioned if there was any update on his previous request for the reptiles, not as of yet per VP Hall.

William Stewart stated he served 15 plus years on Civil Service which included several great hires as Salisbury, Golden, Laird and Pugh and is disappointed not to be considered for this committee. He mentioned how he has assisted both Morton & Ridley Park

Amanda Bunn asked if the Ordinance from 1975 could be looked into as her kids have ATV's and would like to ride them but ordinance does not allow motorized vehicles. President Walker noted she would look into this.

William Stewart also asked about the Tan extension and stated that at a minimum a resolution is required, Councilman Bolton reminded all that the TAN extension is just in case it is needed due to the delay in tax bills. Solicitor Possenti assured all that all was in order.
